

Kevin Sieben

| Attorney at Law

“Nothing is more important than protecting our liberties, and I have dedicated my life to doing that.”

Kevin Sieben is a third generation lawyer in the Sieben family from Hastings, Minnesota. From a family steeped in law and politics for over 100 years, Kevin Sieben dedicates his practice to defending those accused.

A graduate of St. John’s University and William Mitchell College of Law, Sieben has worked in Washington, D.C. for Congressman Bill Luther and he has managed legislative campaigns.

Kevin Sieben’s practice has taken him to the four corners of the state representing the accused. In just his first six months in practice he defended an accused in a jury trial that resulted in a not guilty verdict. The jury trials and court appearances have continued. Sieben has helped clients with the most serious felony charges. In 2021/2022, Sieben served as the President of the Minnesota Society for Criminal Justice, an invite only organization limited to 50 lawyers. In 2020, Sieben was selected as Attorney of the year by Minnesota Lawyer for his work helping individuals affected by the pandemic expunge old criminal records. Sieben’s law practice continues to grow and the results stack up.

Kevin Sieben comes from a family of twelve lawyers, numerous legislators, decorated soldiers, mayors, and community activists. His father, Bill Sieben, is a prominent personal injury attorney (Schwebel, Goetz & Sieben). His mother, Joyce, a former educator, is active on the Hastings Public Schools Foundation. His uncle, Harry Sieben, served as Speaker of the Minnesota House of Representatives and as Major General in the Minnesota National Guard. His uncle, Mike Sieben, served in the state legislature for ten years, as did his cousin, Senator Katie Sieben.

His grandfather, Harry Sieben, was appointed U.S. Marshall by President John F. Kennedy and served in the cabinet of Governor Orville Freeman. Kevin’s great-grandfather served as mayor of Hastings, as did his great-great-grandfather, J. George Sieben. Kevin’s great-uncle, James Sieben, was a highly decorated World War II hero (2 silver stars, 2 purple hearts) and served as Adjutant General of the Minnesota National Guard, retiring as a Lieutenant General.

Kevin Sieben is available throughout Minnesota to assist with criminal law matters. Kevin is experienced in Minneapolis Criminal Defense.

Sieben Edmunds Miller PLLC has helped thousands of criminal defense and personal injury clients achieve prompt and successful resolution to their cases. We attribute our team's success to a combination of experience, expertise, and exceptional dedication to the needs of each client.

Award-Winning, Board-Certified

The highest praise often comes from those in the best position to evaluate the skill, integrity, and legal ability of a lawyer. The legal community respects the accuracy of these ratings because it knows that its own members – the people best suited to assess their peers – are directly involved in the process.

Attorneys at Sieben Edmunds Miller have been honored to be acknowledged for their exemplary professional achievement from both Super Lawyers and Martindale Hubbell. We have also received several awards voted on by the public, including twice being named the Readers' Choice Award for Best Attorneys by the SUN ThisWeek newspaper's Burnsville/Eagan edition.

Additionally, our attorneys are involved in the following organizations and associations, and others:

- American Bar Association
- Hennepin County Bar Association
